SWINGING IN SEQUINS

FASHION TIP:

I am wearing a beautiful MT Costello gown that is embellished with sparkle and charm. The dress perfectly shapes my figure and has an elegant flair at the bottom, giving me a mermaid look. My inspiration for golf fashion is inspired by hints of extravagant gowns transformed into everyday fashion. I enjoy giving golf a Vogue and Cosmopolitan feel while thinking outside the box.

DRIVING STAT:

Your driver is critical to the success of your golf game. It sets the tone for the start of your day and round; there is a confidence that lets you swing freely and aim far when your driver is working for you. Annika Sorenstam is one of the LPGA's greatest golfers, and she was known for her consistent accuracy off the tee that led her to 10 majors and 72 total wins on tour. For the 2014 PGA Tour year, the leader in driving accuracy was David Toms with 75.49 percent of fairways (653/845); he is one of my favorite golfers. My greatest advice to you is to take your time on the tee box with your driver. You must work on visualizing good drives and seeing your ball hitting the fairway. Stay committed to your shot and your scores will drop and you will be a happier and better player!

FLOWERS ON TOWERS

FASHION TIP:

Flowers are always seasonal and in style during the summer time. In this fashion shoot with Erik Umphrey, we wanted to be creative and bring my golf bag and dress together. My golf bag is sparkly, shiny and fabulous...and it just so happened to match my pink and purple poofy flower MT Costello dress. Flowers make me happy; I feel as though they are bright and give me a special energy. Try matching your outfit and golf bag for a day. My golf bag is my big purse that I take to the range with all my tools to play an amazing round of golf.

SCORING STAT:

You have to look good to play good! Rory McIlory is the 2014 leader with a scoring average of 68.8. He dresses well with plain and vibrant colors; he is always switching up his Nike outfits. It's a great feeling to know that your outfit and your game can shine on the course at the same time.

FASHION TIP:

My exquisite deep emerald green dress by MT Costello makes me the queen of the green. I just simply couldn't help myself to spread the gown and sprinkle white tees and ProV1's around me. The best part about being a girl is that we can dress up and imagine the impossible; we can pretend to live in a fashion fairy tale that lasts forever.

PUTTING STAT:

It all comes down to your putting! You can hit the ball like a superstar, but if you can't putt that shiny white ball into the hole it can make for a difficult day. It's important to note that it is "putting" that adds up half our scorecard. In 2014 Jordan Spieth lead the putting leaderboard with an average of 27.86 putts over 102 rounds. If we could all putt like Jordan Spieth we would join him in the winners circle! My advice to lower your score is to spend some time warming up on the putting green before heading to the first tee. Really get a good feel of the green and speed of your putts and watch your score drop a few shots!
